Dear Stamp Enthusiast,

As the leaves begin to turn, it's a pleasure to welcome you to the colorful Fall 2001 edition of USA Philatelic, your official source for current U.S. stamps and stamp products.

In this issue, we present many new stamps, beginning with the legendary Lucille Ball. It's only fitting that she has been immortalized on a stamp because her humor heralded a new era of comedy and has influenced society to this very day.

We also commemorate Eid with a stamp that features a beautiful example of Islamic calligraphy in metallic gold; Amish Quilts are the first in the American Treasures series; and Carnivorous Plants, which will be the star of this year's National Stamp Collecting Month in October. Watch for its unveiling at the American Philatelic Society STAMPSHOW in Chicago on August 23.

Featured in this issue (pages 14 and 15) you will find our diverse Subscription Programs. Select one of five popular programs, and you'll receive exciting stamps and stamp products automatically throughout the year. Another collecting option is our Collector Packets (page 23)—one of the best ways for thematic collectors to add to their collections with only one simple item number.

To add anything you see inside these covers to your collection, simply fill out and return the enclosed order form. Or call 1 800 STAMP-24 (1-800-782-6724), fax us at 816-545-1212 or visit our Postal Store online at www.usps.com. Whichever way you choose, we're here for you—to quickly fill an order or answer any questions.

USA Philatelic is always interested in helping collectors enjoy the world of stamps. We put you first, and hope you like this latest edition.

Sincerely,

Catherine Caggiano

Executive Director, Stamp Services

D Stampin' The Future™

More than 120,000 schoolchildren across the U.S. entered artwork in response to the U.S. Postal Service's challenge to envision the 21st century. Four winners are featured on 50 million stamps: Zachary Canter, age 10, "Kids in Space"; Sarah Lipsey, age 12, "Send Love Around the World"; Morgan Hill, age 10, "Red Rocket Home" and Ashley Young, age 12, "Bow Wow."

Children of all ages love stamps. They're fun to lick, fun to stick and lots of fun to look at. They're also a great way to learn about people, places and things. Know a child who deserves a gift?

CUSTOM ORDERS: Custom orders are configurations other than those listed for each item and will result in a $3 shipping and handling charge. Requests for non-prepackaged items will incur a custom-order fee. Booklets and self-adhesive coils are not available as custom orders. The first four digits of the item number plus "00" make the base number for custom orders (future reprint varieties will use the first four digits of the item number plus "01," "02," etc., depending on the sequence of variety).

If you need assistance with your custom order, please call 1 800 STAMP-24. Orders may be placed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. To speak with a Customer Service Representative, calls must be placed between 8 am and 4:30 pm, Monday through Friday CT.

DUCK STAMPS

Each of these annual hunting-permit stamps depicts a different waterfowl.
Money raised by this program goes to Wetlands Conservation.

A

You don't have to hunt for the perfect gift for duck hunters. These annual hunting-permit stamps permit duck hunters to enjoy their passion. The environment profits from your gift, too.

A Tropical Flowers

It's not enough to praise the environment without preserving it as well. So these four designs—Bird of Paradise, Royal Poinciana, Chinese Hibiscus and Gloriosa Lily—are printed on 20% post-consumer waste stock with 100% recyclable adhesive. The paintings are by Steve Buchanan.

Ever wonder how a stamp becomes a stamp? It's up to The Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee, which was established in 1957. They provide the Postal Service with a "breadth of judgment and depth of experience in various areas that influence subject matter, character, and beauty of postage stamps."

B Pacific Coast Rain Forest

The richness of the Pacific Coast Rain Forest is evident in this artwork by painter John D. Dawson. There are 26 species of plants and animals illustrated here, with an emphasis on the diversity of life in one of the world's largest temperate rain forests. This is the second in the Nature of America series.
